MANY DIE WHEN BRIDGE COLLAPSES

WATCHING POLICE SEARCHING RIVER FOR BODY OF BOY

WERE DROWNED OR CRUSHED TO DEATH

Twenty Bodies Have So Far Been Recovered —Seven Seriously Injured Are in Hospital —Police Compelled to Keep Back Frantic People Looking for Relatives or Friends

(By The Associated Press)

CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 10.—Twenty four persons are known to be dead, nearly as many were injured and a number of bodies are believed to be at the bottom of the Chester river as the result of the collapse of part of a footway on the Third Street bridge over that stream tonight.

The dead and injured were part of a crowd of approximately 75 persons that had gathered on the structure to watch the efforts of police in grappling for the body of a 5 year old boy who was drowned but a half hour before. Many of the dead are women and children. The bridge was an old fashioned structure ninety feet long and cleared the water by about twenty feet. It carried two trolley tracks across the stream and had one foot path. The river is about 15 feet deep where the occident occurred. An hour and a half after the collapse more than 20 bodies had been removed to the morgue. At that time there were seven seriously injurd persons in the Chester hospital.

All available police and firemen were summoned for the work of rescue and searchlights were provided from nearfby plants.

A great crowd gathered at the morgue as the bodies were brought in and a police guard had to be thrown about the place to restrain frantc people who rushed to the morgue to see if relatives or friends were among the dead.

The child that was drowned had been playing on the banks of the stream and slipped into the water and sank. Police were summoned who quickly threw out grappling irons from a row boat. In the meantime news of the drowning spread and women and men rushed to the bridge in fear the child, whose identity was not known was their own.

As the police grappled in the murky water around coal and ice barges the crowd grew and suddenly there was a crackling sound heard and one end of the foot path gave way. Those who fell into the water first had no chance to escape as others came tumbling upon them. They sank and the police believe some were forced to the bottom of the stream and are still imbedded in the mud.

People Were Frantic

E. J. White, the coroner was on the scene shortly after the collapse of the bridge. At 9 o'clock more than a score of bodies had been taken to the morgue. As the dead were carried in men, women an children surged about the place. Mothers sought children and husbands were looking for their wives and children. They were not admitted to the morgue for some time and the situation became such that police were summoned from the scene of the bridge collapse to the morgue. Citizens also were pressed into service as guards by the coroner.

The accident happened just as the tide was at ebb. Rescuers realized that it soon would flow out and possibly carry bodies into the Delaware river. Fire department ladders were stuck into the water so as to form a screen and prevent any bodies in the river from going out with the tide. Fishing nets also were used for this purpose. Only the footway on the bridge collapsed. The rest of the bridge remained intact and was suficently strong to permit a score of men to do rescue work from it. On the river launches and rowboats worked under searchlights as the tide flowed out.

The scene of the accident is near the business section of the city. A moving picture theater is nearby and people coming from there helped to swell the crowd on the structure.

James Embree of Chesteh, was standing near the bridge when the accident occurred. He dragged 23 men, women and children from the water. Nine of them upon examination were found to be dead.

"Soup" Pierce, a well known river boatman was coming up the river with his launch when the foot path collapsed. He hescued 11 persons alive and after repeated diving brought three bodies to the surface.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hamm and son, Bobbie, are enjoying the week end at Wilcox Lake.

TROUBLE BREWING IN ASSEMBLY OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Balfour Warns Dangers Surround Question of Mandates

(By The Associated Press)

GENEVA, Sept. 10.—Arthur J. Balfour, of the British delegation, speaking today at the assembly of the league of nations in defense of the council, which had been under sharp fire for three days, warned the assembly that the mandate question was full of difficulties and dangers and that it was venturesome to try, as Lord Robert Cecil proposed to fix the terms of the mandates immediately.

He was much pained, he said by Hjalmar Branting's charges that the council and the assembly were under the control of a small group of powers. He expressed surprise that the attack of the Jugo-Slav delegate, M. Spaliakovitch on Albania and at Lord Robert Cecil's demand for the immediate fixing of the terms of the mandates.

The assembly had been nonplussed by the unexpected attack on Albania, Mr. Balfour at once set out to counteract the bad effect and the assembly showed its appreciation by frequent and ardent marks of approval.

INVESTIGATION INTO DEATH OF FILM ACTRESS

Fatty Arbuckle Will be Held Pending the Investigation

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cay., Sept. 10.—Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, motion picture comedian, who started for Los Angeles last night by automobile to clear up his part in an affair at his suite in a hotel here last Monday as a result of which the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, a film actress occurred, was reported to be nearing San Francisco late today.

Arbuckle will be taken into custody by the police, it was announced, pending an investigation into the woman's death. No charge will be placed against him according to Michael Griffin, acting captain of detectives, but he will be detained until after the inquest, which has been set for next Thursday.

Arbuckle was quoted as saying when he passed thru Fresno today on his way here from Los Angeles that he had never met the girl until Monday when she was brought into his suite to join a party of about ten persons. She had a few drinks, Arbuckle said, and then it became necessary to call a physician and have her removed.

According to a signed statement to the police by Miss Alice Blake, one of the party she and another woman, Miss Zey Prevon, noticed the absence of Miss Rappe from the room, and found her in an adjoining room in great distress. The hotel physician was summoned, Miss Blake stated.

Miss Rappe later was removed to a hospital where she died yesterday. Physicians who performed an autopsy said death was caused by peritonitis and that bruises were found on her body. The stomach was removed for examination and statements were obtained today by the coroner from the various physicians regarding the post mortem examination.

Miss Rappe's body was taken from the morgue today to a funeral establishment pending removal to Los Angeles.

Arbuckle and all members of the party will be subpoenaed to testify at the inquest, according to the coroner.

Harry Keller, secretary of the grand jury, said the county grand jury would investigate the case at its meeting Monday night.

Miss Rappe was born in Chicago. She was 23 years old. She went to Los Angeles about five years ago and obtained employment with motion picture companies.

In the last season or two she appeared with well known male stars. She made her home in Los Angeles with an aunt who was said to have acted as chaperone, even when Miss Rapp went to her work before the camera.

KILLED IN JUMP FROM INTERURBAN

STAMFORD, Conn., Sept. 10.—The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. William J Lewis, of Springfield, Mass., who were killed when they jumped from a car of the Rubin and Cherry Carnival company train at Noroton this afternoon, when a "flash" from the overhead electric system entered the car were removed to the morgue in Darien late today. A number of other members of the company were more or less seriously injured at the same time. All with the exception of a young son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and a nurse maid, named Annie Ingram, proceeded with the train.

According to railroad men the "flash" was caused by an iron pipe, projecting ten inches above the roof coming into contact with the overhead structure carrying high tension feed wires.

BODY OF AUSMUS FOUND BY POLICE IN CHURCH GARAGE

Hands and Feet Bound and Bundle of Steel and Cloth Had Been Thrust Into His Mouth—Head Beaten Into Almost Unrecognizable Pulp—Church Still Denies Guilt

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Harvey W. Church, the 20 year old youth arrested in Adams, Wis., last night in connection with the murder of Bernard J. Daugherty and Carl Ausmus, was brought back to Chicago tonight in the automobile declared by the police to be the motive for the crime.

Following the finding of the terribly mutilated body of Daugherty yesterday in the Desplaines river and the discovery of the bloodsoaked hats of the two men in the basement of the apartment occupied by Church and his mother, the police today dug up the body of Ausmus which had been hidden in a garage in the rear of the apartment.

Ausmus' body had been buried face downward beneath an old automobile owned by Church. The hands and feet were bound together with rope and a bundle of steel and cloth had been thrust into the mouth until it penetrated the chest cavity. The head was beaten into an almost unrecognizable pulp. Death had been caused by strangulation and congestion of the lungs.

An examination was begun immediately to determine whether poison of any kind had been administered to the two victims, the police believing that it would have been impossible for any one man to have overcome both of them.

Believe Men Were Drugged.

The theory was advanced that they had been lured to the basement under the pretext of having a drink and had been given drugged liquor before they were slain.

Both men it was declared were heavy set and capable of putting up a terrific struggle if attacked. Dougherty, whose home was in St. Paul, was formerly widely known in amateur athletic circles in Minnesota. He was 30 years old and was a former student at Harvard University. During the war he served as a captain in the tank corps.

Ausmus, also a former service man was larger in build than Daugherty and several years younger. His home was in Bloomington, Ill. The two were employed by the Packard Motor company of Chicago, Daugherty as a salesman and Ausmus as a demonstrator.

According to officials of the concern, Church began negotiations for a car which he said was for his father, a farmer living in Adams, Wis., a week ago. Thursday morning he selected a $5,400 machine and asked that a salesman be sent with him to a bank so that he could pay for it. Daugherty and Ausmus went with Church in the car to complete the deal. Another car followed to bring the two back.

At the bank, where it was said that Church had only a few dollars on deposit, the first car disappeared and after waiting two hours the driver of the second found a note tied to his steering wheel telling him to return to the shops. It was signed with Daugherty's name, which officials of the automobile company say was forged.

Neighbors at the Church home told of seeing Church drive up in the new car with two men and said that all of them entered the house. Later Church was said to have driven away alone in the car. He returned about 5 p. m., and took his mother, described as a white-haired, sweet faced old lady, and a neighbor on a drive to Michigan City. The party returned shortly before nine o'clock, a neighbor reported to the police today that she saw lights in the garage between 3 and 4 a. m. Shortly after 6 o'clock Church and his mother drove away in the car after telling friends that they were going to visit their old home at Adams, Wis. Church was arrested as he entered the town last night.

Protests Innocence.

From the very first, Church protested his innocence and all knowledge of the tragedy. He said that he had paid Dougherty in cash for the automobile and had a receipt to prove it. Declaring his willingness to return to return to Chicago, he kept assuring his mother that he would set

WOMEN SAY THEY WERE NOT DRIVEN OUT OF ROSICLARE

Tell Commission That Story Circulated Was Untrue

(By The Associated Press)

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ill., Sept. 10.—Reports that women and children were driven out of Rosiclare last week by mine guards and private detectives were denied today by the women themselves, testifying before the special commission sent here by Governor Len Small to investigate disorders in the fluor spar mining district.

Adjutant General Frank S. Dickson, chairman of the commission, announced tonight after hearing several union miners and their wives that there was "absolutely no truth in these reports."

The women confirmed the story told the commission which includes George Arnold, director of labor, and Robert Medill, director of mines and minerals this morning by Rosiclare officials.

Both sides agreed, General Dickson said, that Mrs. Ed Carbine, wife of the organizer of the International Union of Mine, Mills and Smelter Workers told the women and children to leave Rosiclare.

J. L. Mott, clerk in the store of Fred Hardesty, financial secretary of the union, testified the organizer's wife came to him and instructed him to help notify the women to leave.

The state officials questioned Hardesty about the fight in his store on August 25, when four detectives and four union miners were shot. General Dickson tonight received word from Ed Carbine who is at Harrisburg, that he will be here tomorrow to appear before the committee.

POLICE OFFICIALS THINK ESTIMATE IS CONSERVATIVE ONE

PROPERTY DAMAGE WILL BE IMMENSE

Work of Recovering Bodies is Progressing Slowly—Precautions Taken to Prevent Epidemic—Countless Acts of Heroism Recorded—Had No Warning of Disaster

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 10.—With the known list list of dead standing at forty this afternoon, police officials still believe an estimate of two hundred and fifty lives lost as a result of the disastrous flood which struck this city early Saturday morning to be a conservative one. No attempt has been made to estimate the property damage but it is certain to run into millions of dollars.

Because of the swollen condition of the three streams which caused the flood, the work of recovering bodies is progressing slowly. Great piles of driftwood which have lodged against trees and against bridges when removed it is feared will reveal additional dead. Many bodies are also believed to have floated downstream and may never be accounted for.

With the waters of the San Antonio river, the Alazan and San Pedro creeks back in their banks only a few hours, relief work and sanitary precautions are already well under way. A thoroly organized relief committee has begun caring for flood victims and city health officers are engaged in a rigid cleanup of the city to prevent any possibility of an epidemic. This work will be carried on Saturday night and Sunday without relaxation.

PRELIMINARY DISCUSSION IS DECIDED UPON

Will Be Next Step in Preparing for the Conference

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Preliminary discussion by the American delegation with a view of arriving at unified opinions and selections of the personnel of the delegation's advisory committee were indicated officially today as the next step to be taken by the United States government in preparation for the conference on limitation of armament and Pacific and Far Eastern affairs.

The preliminary discussions it was stated may be expected to begin soon altho some progress toward unification of views already has been made. Secretary Hughes who has been designated by President Harding as head of the delegation is understood to have ascertained the views of Senator Lodge and Elihu Root, two other members of the delegation on several of the questions on which it was considered desirable to formulate early opinions. The four member of the American delgation, Senator Underwood, will be brought into the discussions as soon as he returns to Washington.

MULE MAKERS ATTACK OFFICERS

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 10.—When federal officers interrupted the operation of a whiskey still in the home of Matt Green, at Kellyville, this county, today, they were attacked by Anthony Martin, armed with a large poker, and by Mrs. Green, who attempted to use a butcher knife. They were overpowered and with the woman's husband, were lodged in jail. A large amout of rye mash and considerable moonshine were destroyed and the still confiscated.

COMMISSION SETS ASIDE REDUCTION

Welsenburg, Colo., ent. 10.—The Colorado state industrial commission today set aside a wage reduction inaugurated in coal mines of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company in Huerfano and Las Animas counties and placed the old wage scale in effect pending further investigation of the wage controversy which has tied up many mines for more than a week.

As reports gradually trickle in from outlying sections of the city, they only serve to confirm the fear that the flood is the worst in the city's history. Streets adjacent to the three streams, in some instances have been swept clean almost their entire length. Houses in the southern portion of the city were lifted from their foundations and piled one upon another or in some cases driven entirely thru adjoining buildings.

Dead animals line the banks of the streams.

The flood waters from the San Antonio river and Alazan creek and small tributaries inundated an area approximately two miles long by one half mile wide including the heart of the business section and a portion of the residence section along River avenue and adjacent streets as well as the thickly populated West side where today thousands of Mexicans are homeless and the dead not yet counted.

Greatest Disaster In History.

The flood is the greatest disaster in the history of San Antonio, several hospitals, the central telephone exchange, the city hall and police and fire headquarters and countless other structures along the low lying river valley were in the pathway of the flood.

These were the things visible to the eye when the day dawned, cloudy, gloomy and threatening. But what occurred in the blackness of the night when scores of men, women and children met death in the oil coated waters of the flood, as houses collapsed, bridges were swept out, trees, electric light and telephone poles crashed and their wires became entangled with the other wreckage is something that will never be known in detail.

Countless acts of heroism are recurrent as police and soldiers forgetful of personal safety braved the current and floating debris to carry women and children to places of safety. Thousands of families along the river were rescued before daybreak by men who worked thru the long hours often neck deep in water, risking their lives almost every minute of that time to save others.

And in keeping with such heroic acts were the tragedies that always accompany a disaster of such wide extent. Babies were swept from mother-arms and lost in flood waters, mothers were carried away and children rescued, fathers were lost saving little ones and today there are widows and orphans in San Antonio who shudder at the mere thought of their experiences of the night. And there are numerous other people who do not know yet

SANE ACTION.

Just about the sanest and most reasonable action ever taken by an organization relating to wages must be attributed to the National Association of Letter Carriers. A large majority of delegates voted against a campaign for increasing the minimum and maximum pay schedule of letter carriers. It was voted that an increase in pay should come when general business and industrial conditions had been improved.

WILL NOT ABSOLVE THE PROFITEERS.

Evidently Attorney General Daugherty has the firm intention of pressing charges against at least some of the war profiteers. The attorney general has proposed to extend the statute of limitations for war offenses to six years. He has no doubt found it practically impossible for his department to press to a conclusion the large number of cases awaiting trial and still others that should have attention.

If it is a fair proposition to dig into the tax returns of individual citizens for four or five years back, certainly there is no reason why the records of the profiteers should not be subject to inspection and the law for just as long a time as the legal department thinks reasonable.

THE BEST SOLUTION.

Somewhat extensive preparations are being made for the unemployment conference. Since the project is favored by Secretaries Hoover and Davis, no doubt something practical and worth while will be evolved. However there isn't really very much that can be done for non-employment except to start the wheels of industry, moving. With business anything like the normal stage, the question of non-employment will settle itself.

DUTY AND SYMPATHY.

Some of the delegates to the Methodist conference here gave a fine example yesterday of that "touch of nature which makes the whole world kin." The committee appointed to try one of the brethren against whom charges had been made had struggled for two days over the evidence. The minister was charged with certain financial irregularities and after the extended investigation, the verdict was against him and recommended dismissal. But as they delivered this finding, the ministerial jurors individually expressed their sympathy for their brother and regret that they felt the action recommended must be taken.

Then they quickly raised a fund for the aid of the offending minister. In just a few minutes' time the ministers contributed $168 to that special fund. And most of the contributors were compelled to figure very carefully so that the expenses of each month shall not exceed the salary allowance.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION.

A. L. Bowen, writing editorially in the Springfield Journal, yesterday took occasion to commend the Methodist church for the splendid work it has undertaken thru the Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois. The editorial appeared on the very day that the conference here voted to undertake the task of raising another million dollars for the extension of the foundation work. Here is what Mr. Bowen said:

"A year ago the Methodists discovered that, out of 7,534 students on the campus, 1,878 were either members of that church or expressed preference for it.

"The Methodist church thereupon took the lead in establishing the Wesley foundation, the object of which is to build and operate near the university institutes for religious training, residences for students, social service center, a library, and a great church edifice, all exclusively for students.

"The success of the undertaking has been pronounced. Money has been contributed in large sums. The action of the Illinois Methodists has been followed by the establishment of similar Wesley foundations at other state universities."

AUTO COLLIDES WITH BUGGY.

A car driven by Charles Bates of this city collided with a buggy containing Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cowgill and two children, at the corner of West State street and Prospect street. Mr. Cowgill was thrown from the buggy but was uninjured and fortunately no one else was either.

The accident is said to be due to the lack of light as there was no street light and the darkness made it impossible to see anything not in the direct path of the auto lights. The accident occurred about 8 o'clock last evening.

Mr. Cowgill and his family reside on a farm on the Mound road.

CARS IN COLLISION.

A car driven by Rev. Fred A. Becholz of Elwin and another driven by T. J. Ward of Ashland came into collision at the intersection of East State street and Clay avenue about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mr. Becholz was driving east in his car and when Mr. Ward started to turn from the north side of the pavement into Clay avenue the cars came into collision. The fender and side board of the Cecholz car were damaged, while one wheel and the lamps of the Ward car were crushed.

Bequeathing Business Judgment

A prominent life insurance company, having studied the history of estates of five thousand dollars or over created by its payments to beneficiaries, finds that within seven years 90 per cent of these estates are wholly dissipated. Probably the same average holds for inherited cash estates.

In most of these cases the money was paid to widows and minors, persons who had had little or no business training in handling money, who had not labored for wages and consequently had no adequate idea of the worth of a dollar. Probably no considerable per cent of the beneficiaries were willfully profligate. Profligacy is not necessary to the swift scattering of a fortune. A little lack of judgment will do the work.

In many a case, such a fund, being too small to yield a supporting income, has been put into the hands of promoters of doubtful enterprises, which promise much larger returns than can be had from safe investments. There are men who make it their profession to seek out owners of new estates and over-persuade them.

The swift scattering of cash estates has brought to public notice the necessity of placing safeguards about such funds. Life insurance is being made payable in monthly installments. Testators are also placing funds in trust for their legatees, to be administered until the beneficiaries have attained an age well beyond youth, thus making it impossible to lose or squander the entire estate at once.

Testators are coming more and more to avail themselves of the services offered by trust companies in trusteeing funds for beneficiaries. In this way business judgment as well as money is bequeathed to widows and orphans. And, according to the history of cash estates, business judgment may be as valuable a legacy as ready cash.

"This is all wrong—its all a mistake," Church averred as he began the return trip, accompanied by his mother and father, Attorney J. T. Lindsey of Adams, his counsel, and two Chicago detectives.

"I want to say right now that I have absolutely no knowledge of this and I can prove it," he insisted repeatedly as the powerful car plowed its way over muddy roads on the return journey.

When asked concerning the presence of blood-stained garments and a bloody hammer, hatchet and baseball bat in the basement of his home, he said:

"I refuse to make any statement."

He also refused to answer when asked if he could explain why bloodstained hats belonging to Daugherty and Ausmus were found in the basement. He intimated however, that the finding of evidence of the crime in his apartment was part of a plot of enemies.

Says It's a Frameup.

"It's a frameup" he was quoted as telling the detectives and said that he had made enemies by acting as a strikebreaker in the railroad yardmen's strike.

The body of Daugherty was found shortly afternoon yesterday by a pedestrian lying in three inches of water in the Desplaines river on the outskirts of the city and a few blocks from Church's home. A rope was twisted around the neck and the throat cut from ear to ear. A pair of regulation handcuffs dangled from one wrist. The finding of the body led to the investigation which caused the arrest of Church.

The police today began a search of the pawnshops to try and identify the handcuffs. Employes at one store said that they had sold the handcuffs Wednesday, the day before the murder to a man they said resembled photographs of Church. They will be asked to face Church himself in an effort to make the identification positive.

Police also scught a companion of Church's who was said to have been implicated in a recent holdup.

While Church has claimed to have been a jewelry salesman he is also said to have sold used automobiles as a sideline.

Efforts to trace his activities have failed, according to the police. A year ago he was said to have paid $6,000 for the apartments in which he and his mother reside, the deed being in his mother's name.

In commenting on Church's statement that he had a receipt showing that he had paid Daugherty for the automobile, officials of the Packard company said that it was probale that the salesman had carried the receipt with him when he left their offices. They said that it was customary to make out the receipt before payment had been made so that it would be ready when the money had been turned over.

BELIEVE DEAD WILL REACH OVER 200

whether they are widows or orphans, who are waiting the outcome of the search for bodies among the debris-strewn streets and river banks.

No Warning Given.

The people of San Antonio were caught without warning. The rainfall which actually caused the flood fell after eight o'clock Friday evening in the hills along the Olmos creek.

Unquestionably there was a cloudburst. The electric display was the most vivid ever seen here as lightning flashed almost continuously and the thunder boomed and reverberated thru the heavens. While torrents of rain were still falling in the streets of San Antonio and the residents unable to get out because of the downpour went early to bed, a roar was heard, subdued, but omninous as the flood waters broke upon the town.

Following the river and Alazan creek and small tributaries the flood waters swept upon the city with terrific force.

"It was impossible to stand on your feet against the swift current," said one man who escaped from his home before the crest of the flood struck. "I got away early as the first waters rose in my home and even then I was compelled to cling to buildings, trees, fences and wreckage to get out. I could not stand upright against the force of the water. Then the crest came a few minutes later, I do not believe any human being could have withstood it."

In some parts of the city a wall of water variously described as ten to thirty feet high struck with a rush that carried houses from their foundations, swept motor cars away, destroyed concrete bridges, tore down trees and poles and ripped up the paving in the streets like so many pebbles.

"I seized hold of a picket fence," said one youth, "just as the flood struck. The fence was torn away and when I got out, I still had one of the pickets in my hand. I do not know how I got out."

Large houses were swept about on the flood's crest as tho they were paper boxes. Some of them were swept along until they encountered trees or other obstacles when they were wrecked and boards and timbers of all kinds whipped about like clubs in the water, undoubtedly death to many.

Bodies Badly Crushed.

In fact, some of the bodies taken from the flooded waters and awaiting identification in the morgues were cut and crushed and bruised as tho beaten with a mighty flail.

Thruout the darkness of the night the terrified screams of women and children echoed now and then across the flood waters. Men and women sank to their knees in the mud and water and prayed. Others ran about in a distracted manner seeking relatives and friends talking incoherently, weeping and shrieking.

But after the first rush of water when the river and Alazan creek left their banks, it was possible for rescuers to work at the edge of the flood retreating steadily backward like a battle line yielding inch by inch before the charge of the enemy.

The waters quickly swept up and down Houston and Commerce streets for blocks, running over sidewalks into basements and rising steadily ever higher and higher.

They quickly made their way from street to street up alleys, minature waves slapping against the sides of the buildings angrily. Now and then a piece of wreckage was tossed here and there thru the streets until it collided with a show window. Then "bang, crash" went a shower of glass and merchandise was seized by the waters and carried out and away with a thick film of crude oil, muddy ooze and gravel spread thru a once spotless store in the heart of San Antonio's retail district.

Quickly marshalling their forces, the fire and police departments responded and wholeheartedly to the call of the rescuers. At every danger point wherever people were appealing for aid the bluecoated figures could be seen doing yeoman service without the thought of personal safety.

Methodist Conference Notes

Dr. Hanny, who is a representative of the Drew Theological seminary, was an interested visitor at the conference session yesterday and made a very brief address.

John M. Phillips, son of Rev. W. S. Phillips, is expecting to transfer to the New England conference. This earnest young minister has been assured an important post in that territory under the direction of Bishop Hughes.

The long continued debate on the report of the educational committee caused a number of changes in the general program. Several reports were delayed but those in touch with conference affairs think it very likely that appointments will be announced Monday morning. About the only definite announcement which has been made with reference to appointments is that there will be no changes in district boundaries or in district superintendencies.

One of the busy men of the conference is Dr. Joseph C. Nate, now serving on the general board of education of the church. He left the superintendency of the Champaign-Danville district to enter upon that work and was succeeded by Rev. Mr. Byrns of Bloomington, who will continue in that post. Since Mr. Byrns left the First church at Bloomington to take the superintendency, the pulpit in Bloomington has been filled temporarily by Rev. W. J. Davidson of Chicago.

It is generally understood that Dr. F. A. McCarty will go to First church of Bloomington. Dr. McCarty has been in Vermont church in Quincy since 1917 and the Bloomington people have a very definite conviction that now is their turn to have the services of this earnest and popular minister.

Henry F. Cusick is being greeted by many friends in and about Jacksonville. Mr. Cusick was on the Jacksonville circuit from 1912 to 1914. Last year he was assigned to the charge at Indianola.

Bishop Thirkield, who is bishop of the church serving in Mexico, arrived in Jacksonville at 1:40 o'clock this morning. He is scheduled for an address tonight at Centenary church, when his theme will be "Affairs in Mexico." This morning he will preach at Grace church.

Rev. J. W. Kettle, who was a resident pastor in Franklin several years ago, is here for the Methodist conference. Mr. Kettle has for several years been located at Columbus in Adams county.

CLAYTON FAMILY HAD REUNION AT FRANKLIN

Large Number Gathered at Old Homestead North of Franklin Saturday for Family Reunion —The List of Guests.

One of the largest family reunions held in Morgan county in recent weeks was that at the old Clayton homestead just a few miles north of Franklin Saturday. The Clayton family organized something like eleven years ago and each year a reunion is held at Washington park in Springfield. However, this year, the members of the family gathered at the old homestead, which is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Slack.

The former is a grandson of William C. Clayton, familiarly known as "Uncle Sober," who originally occupied the homestead where the reunion this year was held. The elder Mr. Clayton came to this country from Kentucky in 1826 and settled near Franklin. Part of the old home is still standing, altho substantial additions have been made as the years passed.

At the noon hour a sumptuous dinner was served underneath the trees on the lawn, all sorts of good things to eat making up the repast. Afterward came an informal program of music and addresses. The principal address was made by M. L. Keplinger of Carlinville, and a number of others spoke of old times and conditions.

The company included about ninety, most of whom were in some way related to the Clayton family. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Clayton, Mrs. Elizabeth Dill and son, and Howard Philips, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Walter VanWinkle and Mr. and Mrs. Manford Clayton, Mrs. H. C. Mitchell and son, Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Dewey VanWinkle, Divernon; Mr. and Mrs. John Clayton, Mrs. J. M. Matthews, Chatham; M. L. Keplinger, Carlinville; Mr. and Mrs. Burley Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leggett, Mrs. Lizzie Clayton, Robert and James Clayton, Mrs. Lillian King and Mrs. O. F. Buffe, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. M. Lambert and Mrs Edna Doyle, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Seymour, M. E. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Scott, G. M. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. George Trible, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Eador, Bert Anderson and daughter, M. B. Keplinger, all of Franklin.

The second annual picnic of the Woodson band will be held on Thursday, Sept. 15, beginning at 10 a. m. Athletic contests begin at 1 p. m. Plenty of soup, ice cream, sandwiches and pie.

FORMER RESIDENT OF COUNTY PASSED AWAY

Death of Vincent S. Richardson Came at Home in Stafford, Kans., After Long Illness—Was Born in This County.

Mrs. Edmund Hills west of the city is in receipt of a copy of a recent issue of the Stafford (Kansas) Courier, giving an account of the death and funeral services of Vincent S. Richardson, a former resident of the county. Mr. Richardson was born in this county Dec. 28, 1850, and passed away at the family home in Stafford, Saturday, Sept. 3. The article referred to follows:

V. S. Richardson, one of the best known and most highly esteemed men of this city, passed away at his home, 115 South Boston last Saturday night, after a long illness. He had been subject to heart trouble, but after the sudden death of his wife which occured July 30, 1920, he began to grow worse and for the past forty six weeks he has been confined to his bed nearly all the time. Everything that medical skill or loved ones could do was done but he gradually grew weaker and weaker and passed away at 11 o'clock that night, death being due to leakage of the heart.

During his long seige of illness a more patient sufferer could not be found. Being of a cheerful disposition, he bore his suffering very patiently and without a murmur and always looked on the pleasant side of everything.

Vincent Sellers Richardson was the next to the younchest son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent S. Richardson, Sr. He was born near Jacksonville, Morgan county, Illinois, on December 28, 1859, and died at his home at Stafford, Kansas, September 3, 1921; aged 70 years 8 months and 5 days. When a boy of 14 his mother died. He remained with his father until he grew to manhood, when he located on the farm just north of the family home. He was married to Miss Mary Frost on December 24, 1873, and to this union four daughters: Mrs. Lena Jordan, and Mrs. Etta Denison, both of this city, and Jessie E. Richardson, and Lois F. Richardson, both of whom were at home with their father, were born. All the children were present at his bedside when he passed away.

In March of 1887, the family moved to Stafford, Kansas, and resided on a farm just southeast of town. Owing to the iliness of his aged father, the family moved back to their former home in Illinois in order that he might be near him and assist in caring for him. This was in 1895, but five years later after the death of his father, the family moved to Stafford. Here they resided until March of 1913, when they moved to town, locating at 115 South Boston, which has been their home since that time.

Vincent Richardson was a good man. He was honest and upright in all things; his word was as good as his bond. Seldom do you see one, who was so well liked as he; both among young and old. He was a great lover of home, and since the death of his wife, altho in ill-health, was ever thoughtful of the needs and comfort of those around him, as far as he was able, thus trying to lessen the sorrow caused by the death of the beloved one. He will be greatly missed in the home and in the community.

He leaves his four daughters, one granddaughter, Wilma E. Deniston; two sons-in-law, Lum Jordan and Will Deniston; two brothers: W. R. Richardson, of this city, and James I. Richardson, of Sadovus, Illinois. Four brothers and two sisters preceded him in death. Many relatives and a host of friends mourn his death.

Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock at his home and were conducted by Rev. W. H. Briggs, pastor of the Baptist church.

JOHNSON UPSETS TOURNEY DOPE

Defeats Washburn and Probably Will Win Way to Semi-Finals—Davis Wins From Australian After Hard Battle.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—The defeat of Watson M. Washburn of New York by Wallace F. Johnson of Philadelphia in the second round of the fortieth singles championship tournament of the United States lawn tennis association was the outstanding feature of the second day's play on the courts of the Germantown Cricket club here this afternoon. The unexpected downfall of Washburn came after a bitter turf battle, by scores of 6-3, 5-7,2-6, 6-3, 6-3.

From the angle of tactical, strategic tennis and perfect timing of strokes the contest reached a plane seldom seen on American courts. Every stroke was carefully and accurately planned and delivered. Errors formed a prominent part in the scoring of both Johnson and Washburn but this was to be expected since placement points against players of their type are necessarily few and far between.

Each took turns in forcing the play and accumulating points on their opponent's errors. In this respect Washburn really held the upper hand in the first three sets, two of which he won. Johnson however, following the rest after the third set became the aggressor in the fourth set which he won with a string of four straight games at the end. The local player followed with five more in the fifth set before Washburn could check his rush and it was this string of nine victories in a row that broke the internationalist.

As a result of his defeat of Washburn the Philadelphia player appears likely to be R. Norris William's opponent in the semi-final round. Washburn's defeat was not the only upset of the day, however, for Nat W. Niles of Boston fell before the racquet prowess of Stanley W. Pierson another local player, in a second five set match played in an outer court. Pierson who holds the Pennsylvania state championship defeated Niles 5-7, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3. The victory was due in part to the younger players' greater physical endurance, for the rallies were long drawn out and bitterly fought.

In the other matches of the day the progress of the more prominent players into the third round was not marked by any particularly stiff opposition except in the case of Willis Davis of San Francisco wso was forced to the full five set limit to defeat Clarence Todd of the Australasian team.

PLAY TO BLEACHERS

Minneapolis, Minn.—(By A. P.)—"Playing to the grandstand" is forgotten and instead attention is given the bleachers at the Minneapolis American Association ball park when members of the "Knothole Gang" assemble to watch the home team.

The "Knothole Gang," generally composed of between 500 and 1,000 boy baseball fans, is allowed free entrance to the park. The lads, however, must present themselves to the Central Y. M. C. A. building or one of its branches where a card is given them upon the payment of five cents as war tax. The boys then meet at one place and under the direction of a Y. M. C. A. official, who incidentally acts as cheer leader, the "gang" arrives en masse at the park.

The Millers give this privilege, one game out of each series.

According to George K. Belden, president of the Minneapolis team, the arrangement is very satsifactory.

"The boys act in an orderly manner," President Belden said. "Besides, many of them bring back to the supper table an account of the game, possibly with some elaboration, which arouses interest in the father, who then answers the call of the grandstand.

HAS NEARLY ALL AUSTRALIAN TITLES

San Francisco—(By A. P.)—Billy Shade, one of the "Fighting Shades" of Crockett, Cal., near here, has returned with four Australian boxing titles, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight.

Shade spent nearly two years in Australia, during which he engaged in ten bouts. The longest went nineteen rounds against Tommy Uren, former middleweight champion of the Antipodes. Shade lost one fight, to Francis Charles, French middleweight, but later defeated him.

Shade plans an eastern trip. He has his eyes on the world's heavyweight championship eventually.

QUARTET OF SLUGGERS STAGING GREAT RACE

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A quartet of American League sluggers is staging one of the greatest batting races since years ago when Napoleon Lajoie of Cleveland and Ty Cobb of the Tigers fought it out for the league leadership, with only a fraction of a point separating them at the end of the season.

Harry Heilmann and Ty Cobb, the Detroit stars, are holding first and second position as the final stretch is started with George Sisler, the St. Louis idol and last year's champion, putting on an attack which has carried him into fourth place, ahead of Tris Speaker, leader of the World's champions, and which threatens to carry him to the top again.

During the past two weeks, Sisler has hit for an average of just below .500, having cracked out 32 hits in 69 times at bat. He is just four points behind Babe Ruth of the Yankees who is in third place. Heilmann's average is .403, with Cobb trailing with .390. Ruth is smashing the ball for a mark of .383, while Sisler is hitting .379. Speaker, who was tied with the St. Louis star a week ago, is fifth with .369.

Ruth smashed out four home runs since the last compilation of averages and brought his season's string to 52. The home run king in pounding out his 52nd four ply blow placed himself twentydays days ahead of 1920 record, when his 52nd and 53rd homers were smashed at Philadelphia off Rommell on Sept 27. At the present rate, with almost a month to go, he will easily surpass his world's record of 54 home runs in a season.

The big southpaw slugger also increased his total base record to 393, the result of 176 hits. Besides his homers, he made 39 doubles and 12 triples.

S. Harris of Washington by stealing one base has brought his record for the season to 26 thefts.

The averages are of players who have participated in 80 or more games, and include games of last Wednesday.

Other leading batters: Tobin, St. Louis .361, Jacobson, St. Louis .344; Veach, Detroit .343; E. Collins, Chicago .342; Williams, St. Louis .341; Strunk, Chicago .340.

Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis star, who last year led the National League in batting with an average of .370 for the year, promises to repeat this season. He is the only regular in the league hitting above the .400 mark, his latest average showing him traveling at a .406 clip.

George Cutshaw, the veteran first sacker of the Pirates, is Hornsby's closest rival with an average of .350, while Walton Cruise of Boston is two points behind the Pittsburgh star with an average of .348. Jack Fournier, another Cardinal, has tied Ed Roush, of Cincinnati, who topped the National league batters in 1917 and 1919. They are hitting .347.

Hornsby is safely out in front in total bases, his 210 hits giving him a total of 333 bases. His hits include 33 doubles, 15 triples and 20 homers, the latter being just two circuit drives behind George Kelly of the Giants, who is leading with 22 circuit blows.

Frank Frisch of the Giants added four bases to his string of stolen bases and is showing the way to the base stealers with 47 thefts.

Other leading batters: McHenry, St. Louis .344; Mann, St. Louis .341; Frisch, New York .333; E. Smith, New York .330; Meusel, New York .329; C. Williams, Philadelphia .328; Johnston, Brooklyn .324; Griffith, Brooklyn .324; Bigbee, Pittsburgh .322.

Jay Kirke of Louisville dethroned Art Butler of Kansas City for the leadership of the American Association and is topping the batters with an average of .384. Butler is the runner-up with .381 while Reb Russell, the Minneapolis slugger, is in third position with .379. Kirke also has gone into a tie with Bunny Brief of Kansas City for total base honors each having 354 total bases. Brief's string of 35 home runs remains high. Reb Russell is Brief's closest rival for home run honors, having smashed out 29.

Baird of Indianapolis by pilfering five bases during the week is showing the way to the bases stealers with 61 thefts.

Other leading batters: Good, Kansas City .366; Fisher, Minneapolis .358; Thorpe, Toledo .357; Acosta, Louisville .345; Lear, Milwaukee .343; Schinners, Indianapolis .338; Luderus, Toledo .336.

Jack Lelivelt of Omaha who is setting the pace in the Western League is batting .428, according to averages which include games on Tuesday. His closest rival, Harper, of Oklahoma City, has an average of .399.

Beck of Wichita crashed out three circuit drives during the past week and is out in front for home run honors with 28. Haney of Omaha is showing the way on the paths with 41 thefts.

Other leading batters for 80 or more games: East, Wichita .382; Grifin, Omaha .366; Davis, Tulsa .364; Fisher, St. Joseph .362; Metz, Sioux City .359; Lee, Omaha .352; Robertson, Joplin .343; Elekesly, Wichita .341.

With the Southern Association closing Sept. 17 Boone of New Orleans is safely entrenched in first place with an average of .391, according to averages which include games of Tuesday.

Polly McLarry of Memphis is trailing with .356, but Griffith, another New Orleans candidate, is pushing him with an average of .353.

Benson of Birmingham has brought his home run total up to 17. Stewart of Birmingham stole nine bases in the past week and is setting the pace for the base stealers with 58 thefts.

Other leading batters: Bogart, New Orleans .344; Stellbauer, Nashville .340; Burke, Nashville .340; Camp, Memphis .338; Traynor Birmingham .336; Harper, Little Rock .332; Bersen, Birmingham .332; Don Brown, Little Rock .331.

UNION GIANTS TO PLAY INDEES TODAY

Strong Springfield Aggregation Will Try to Take Locals Measure—Visitors are Hard Hitters

The Springfield Colored Union Giants will tackle Frank Smith's Indees at South Side park this afternoon in what promises to be one of the best games of the season. The Giants have in their line-up some men well known to local fans.

Poston former star pitcher is now playing first base. He was always a good hitter and reports say he plays first base in fine form. Then there are the two Jones' who played here with the local Giants in a series against Jacksonville at Nichols park several years ago. Norman one of the Giants hurlers is said to be one of the best pitchers in these parts.

However, and notwithstanding, the Indees will have their full strength in the field with Wright, Hamm and Seymour for mound work. This aggregation is going to be a hard one to curry. When the Giants finish this afternoon they will know they have been in a real baseball game.

The game will be called at 2:45 o'clock and the teams will bat in the following order.

Giants—Murrell, lf; Harris, cf; Woodson-Anderson, rf; L. Jones, 3b; Petross, ss; Britt, 2b; Poston, 1b; Taylor, c; G. Jones, p; Norman, p.

Indees—Dickason, ss; Wheeler, 1b; Doyle, rf; Clark, c; Christopher, lf; DeFrates, cf; Burkery, 3b; Devlin, 2b; Hamm, p; Wright, p; Seymour, p; Ruble, utility.

BUNTING WINS CLASSIC FUTURITY

Harry Payne Whitney's Entry Captures $50,000 Stake—Race Was Full of Thrills From Start to Finish.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Scampering thru the 32nd running of the classic Futurity at Belmont park today, Harry Payne Whitney's entry Bunting, came up from the rear on the home stretch and won by a scant head.

The race was worth $50,000.

Galantman, owned by L. Waterbury, romping into the lead at teh start held the premier position almost to the end of the six furlongs and then nosed out by Bunting, finishing second.

E. B. McLean's Dream of Allah captured third place. The time was 1'11 2-5. It was a pretty race this dash of two year olds. The thousands who flocked out on Long Island on an Indian Summer day had their thrills from start to finish.

A field of 22 lined up. Lyke, straddling Galantman jumped ahead and led the field at the start, with Bunting, carrying Coltletti, in fith place. Dream of Allah had J. Butwell up. Bunting hung back until almost the end. Then the Whitney colors were seen edging ahead into a driving finish.

Bunting was a strong favorite in the betting with Galantman and Dream of Allah were held at long odds.

LOTS OF "PEP" AT WESLEYAN

Rejuvenation of Athletics Makes Students Enthuse—Will Have Two Brand New Coaches This Year.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 10.—A new era in athletics at Illinois Wesleyan University has opened, according to students and alumni, who view the outlook with enthusiasm.

The secret lies in the complete rejuvenation of athletics at the university. The football season will open with two new coaches of note in charge of the Methodists' grid team.

Dr. Walter "Bud" Ritchie and Byron Wimberly are the new pilots. Ritchie was quarterback at the University of Pittsburg in 1904, '05 and '06 when the institution was known as the Yestern University of Pennsylvania. Although he took up the practice of dentistry and later became a manufacturer, he never got very far away from the game in which he gained fame. Before entering Pittsburgh, Ritchie played at Wesleyan for two years. He is in charge of the Methodists' back field this year.

Wimberly played a tackle and was captain for two years at Washington and Jefferson. He is taking care of the line.

Preparations for the season did not end with the selection of the two new coaches. Captain Van Meter has just returned from a summer's course in football and will aid the new mentors in their work of building up a strong eleven this fall. Van Meter has played center on Wesleyan teams for two years.

There is much promising material for a championship eleven at Wesleyan, according to present outlook.

There are a number of promising new material from which Coaches Ritchie and Wimberly can pick their team.

PSYCHOLOGY WILL BE PART OF GAME

Will be Injected Into Football at University of Illinois—Team Will Wear Orange Jerseys Instead of Blue.

URBANA, Ill.—(By A. P.)—Since the coming of Coach Robert Zuppke, psychology has played a more or less important part in the development of University of Illinois football teams. This year a new innovation, psychologically important, will be tried out.

When the Illinois football team appears on the field this fall, the traditional blue sweater will not be seen, but instead the players will wear orange jerseys.

The plan was discussed by Coach Zuppke and Dr. C. R. Griffith, of the department of psychology. Dr. Griffith, who teaches course in the University coaching schools which deals with the facts of psychology as applied to the needs of athletic coaches, made a study of the requirements for a satisfactory jersey, and decided that an orange one was the best suited for football.

"The question of peripheral vision is an important one,' said Dr. Griffith. "In a football game the men are playing against a ditry greenish gray background furnished by the grid-iron and grandstands. It is desirable that a color should be chosen that will stand out against this background. This involves a question of conditions of intensity and quality, with quality playing in the field of vision the important role.

Wants Color to Hold

"A color that holds fairly well over the whole field of vision is wanted, as well as one thatmerely differs with the background. The blues and the yellows and the blacks and the whites are the only qualities that will satisfy this condition. The blue, however is ruled out unless a bright and light blue is chosen, because it fuses too easily with the background. White is highly desirable if it can be kept clean.

"Of the colors, yellow is most preferable. For all practical purposes, red can be added to make an orange without hindering its value in indirect vision, but adding materially to its value in direct vision."

Coach Zuppke, who has made a thorough study of psychology as it applies to football, stated that indirect vision is an important feature in all athletics. The periphery of the eye is extremely sensitive to motion—much more so than the point of clearest vision. With practice it is possible to increase the sensitivity of the peripheral regions to make a large part of the retina available on all occasions.

"It is worth a great deal to a forward passer, said the coach, to know how long he can hold the ball before throwing, yet escape from the menacing end or tackle who has gotten thru the line. This sort of observation, "the seeing out of the corner of the eye," is not an act of mystery but the result of a little painstaking effort and daily practice."

KANSAS PREACHER ADVOCATES BOXING

Referees Bouts in Home City—Congregation Refuses to Let Him Resign.

CHANUTE, Kan.—(By A. P.)—The Rev. Earl A. Blackman's annual resignation again has been rejected by the conggregation of the Christian church of Chanute.

Once a year, regularly, since the war, the Rev. Mr. Blackman has given his parishioners the choice of accepting his advocacy of boxing bouts, dancing and pool, or of hiring a new pastor. While the vote each year has been heavily in his favor, it is by no means unanimous.

"You will find me in the boxing ring, the dance halls, the lodge halls, the pool halls, perhaps in the alleys, or wherever men congregate, if I continue to preach to the Christian church of Chanute," was the ultimatum contained in the minister's recent resignation.

Not only was the resignation rejected—the congregation voted its pastor an increase in salary. This he refused to accept, declaring he was amply paid, and that he earns something in addition to his salary by refereeing boxing bouts. He makes no secret of the fact. Furthermore, he declares he has a "dougie" resason for enhancing his earning capacity.

"Twins recently came to our house," he said. "If some person is to be paid for refereeing and I do the work satisfactorily, I ought to have the money to help support those twins."

His services as referee are today are in much demand in Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. His presence in the ring is regarded as a guarantee of a clean fight. His influence in making boxing a popular sport has been felt thruout this section.

It was while he was chaplain in the 137th infantry of the 35th Division in France that the Rev. Mr. Blackman became a devotee of the fistic game. He was known as "the fighting parson of the 35th" and justly so, for he not only supervised but engaged in many boxing bouts.

In his own church the Chanute minister has put into practice his theory that the church should sponsor both boxing and dancing in the church.

WOMEN ARE SATISFIED WITH ACHIEVEMENTS

Political Leaders Express Themselves as Satisfied With Achievements of First Year of National Enfranchisement—Women Finding Place in Party Organizaions.

NEW YORK.—Representative women leaders in political organizations here expressed gratification today over the achievements of the women of the United States during the first year of their national enfranchisement. The 19th Amendment to the Constitution was officially proclaimed August 26, 1920.

All agreed that during the year women voters everywhere had begun slowly but surely to find their place in the political councils and organizations of the parties. An awakened political consciousness among both men and women and a new dignity in political affairs generally were among the things accomplished by women in that short time they said.

Mrs. Catt's Opinion.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of the National League of Women Voters and the National American Woman Suffrage Association said that women have begun to find their place in the management of the affairs of the two dominant political parties of the country.

"While our progress in that direction has not been complete," she said, "we believe that we have accomplished much in that direction. Many women have been somewhat discouraged by the treament they have received from the professional politicians in their localities. While women have not been granted political equality and opportunity to take their proper place in the political life of their communities in about half the states, they have been received with sympathy and understandng and accorded full equality in the political organizatons n the rest. The women who are more experienced in political matters, especially those who are engaged in suffrage work before national enfranchisement find nothing discouraging in the situation."

Caused Amazement.

Helen Varick Boswell, vice-president of the Republican County Committee of New York said that the rapidity and ease with which women have become absorbed in the political side of life since the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment had caused amazement among the men and satisfaction among the women. In New York state the women became organized into the parties within a few weeks of the actual granting of suffrage.

"The benefit of the country and to women has been great. We feel an assurance, a poise, a security in being a real citizen, with all the functions of helping to create and to mainain better government as our equipment in the political field."

Mrs. Lillian R. Sire, president of the Woman's Democratic Political League, said that the biggest achievement of the year has been the educating of women and men to a new political consciousness.

Work Necessarily Slow.

"The work of inroducing woman's ideals into our political affairs is necessarily slow," she said "but we are making progress every day and a higher standard of conduct in politics and public affairs is being set up.

"We have learned that most of the political leaders are not sincere with us. They will have to learn to take women ino their confidence and consul with them more on political problems of every nature in order to get their point of view which is of value.

"We have not found them to be grateful either. We are given house-to-house canvassing, for which we are well-fitted and other political drudgery to do but so far there has been no sharing of other political responsibilities. After we have been of service and benefit to them they try to avoid us for fear we will expect them to return the favor in kind."

Effect of Women at Polls.

Mary Garrett Hay, chairman of the New York City League of Women Voters, said that it was generally conceded that the presence of women at the polls has brought order and dignity.

"Women have started a movement for better candidates," she said. "The public is hardly aware of this as yet but women are thruout the country holding meetings, getting records, distributing questionnaires and preaching the need for more ability and more honesty in public office.

"They have made a persistent effort to educate the electorate thru citizenship schools and courses and thru the distribution of candidates' records and opinions.

"If American women continue as they have started, they will, in a few years, bring about some startling changes in legislation, election methods and political standards and they will accomplish this in a quiet an unostentatious fashion."

MANY APPLYING FOR 1922 AUTO LICENSES

Thousands Are Asking For Lower Numbers and Many Want Same Numbers As in Past Years.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 10.—With more than three months to go before the new 1922 automobile licenses will be ready, thousands of applications are coming into the secretary of state's office each week from motorists who specifically request numbers below 10,000, according to W. W. Miller, in charge of the automobile department.

This regular mid-year rush to file applications is based on the belief that the early applicants will be first in line for low numbers. More than 25,000 such applications come in about this time each year. Many of them are accompanied by checks or money orders.

The motor vehicle law provides, however, that the present holders of these numbers have first option on them up to twenty days before the expiration of the old year. Fully 85 per cent of those holding numbers below 10,000 ask for reassignments.

Among the applications are many odd requests. Many motorists in Chicago ask for numbers corresponding with their residence numbers. Others want their license plates to correspond to their telephone numbers.

Nearly two hundred motorists each year ask for the number 13 or some combination of thirteen. Just as many applications come in each year with a specific request for numbers without a sign of the figures 13.

A woman in Peoria was given the number 8104. She added the digits and found they equalled 13, so she would not accept the plate.

TURK LEADER HAS FINE BODY GUARD

ANGORA.—(By A. P. Mail).—The safety of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader, is assured by an organization known as the Black Company. They are stalwart soldiers selected from the fierce race of Lazes whose homes border the Black Sea country between Batum and Trebizond.

They are dressed entirely in black. Each is a dead shot and carries a rifle with several ammunition belts buckled around him and a huge crescent-shaped knife stuck in his belt. These men do sentinel duty about his villa, near the city and at his office in the railway station and travel with him on his longer journeys. One or two ride in his automobile when he motors, or else follow in another one of his automobiles. The company is well trained and the men are quiet and orderly. The guard was chosen from the Lazes because they have the reputation of being the bravest and most ferocious fighters of all Asia.

DISCOVER GERMAN WIRELESS STATION

LIMA, Peru.—Chilean secret service agents discovered recently in the German consulate at Antofagasta, Chile, a powerfully equipped wireless station, according to an article published in the newspaper El Tarapaca, of Iquique, Chile, and reprinted in El Comercio here.

The article says a German named Enrique Kostchan, reported to be an attache of the consulate, was taken into custody but later was released. He is said to have told the authorities the station was installed purely for scientific purposes.

The paper asserts the station was dismantled by the chief radio officer of the Chilean government and that the apparatus were found to be sufficiently powerful to communicate with Mexican and North American stations as well as with ships off the south Pacific coast.

Saturday was one of the busiest days of the week for the Methodist Conference. The report of the educational committee and resulting discussion occupied a large part of the day. That report, with its 10 year program and the budget of five and a half million dollars, was adopted.

The anniversaries of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society and of the Home Missions and Church Extension society were observed. Notwithstanding the fact that the conference sessions occupied more than the allotted time, it is understood that the work of the cabinet has been advanced even further than is often the case at this stage at conference affairs.

Since appointments have been so nearly agreed upon, it is entirely likely that the list can be made public at the session tomorrow morning and that adjournment may be had before noon.

Today will be an important one in the conference program. The outstanding features will be the sermon by Bishop Thomas Nicholson at Centenary church this morning, and the serman by Bishop Thirkield at Grace church at the same hour. This afternoon an impressive service will be held when deacons and elders are to be ordained. Visiting pastors will occupy the pulpits at the morning services of the various Protestant churches.

In Long Debate.

All thru the morning session and until nearly 4 o'clock in the afternoon the Methodist conference struggled with the report of the educational committee and its 10 year program. At the conclusion of the extended debate the program, which provides for the raising of a fund of five and a half million dollars, was adopted. The laymen were more evenly divided, voting 34 for and 33 against.

By the terms of this report the conference has just gone on record as favoring the raising of this fund for Chaddock college, Hedding college, Illinois Woman's college, Illinois Wesleyan university, the Wesley Foundation and the Conference Claimants. The original figures were increased and include nearly $1,000,000 already secured in pledges. By the terms of this program the funds to be raised will be divided as follows:

Conference Claimants
Endowment Fund..	$ 50,000
Chaddock Boys' School	250,000
Hedding College	1,000,000
Wesley Foundation..	750,000
Illinois Woman's College	1,000,000
Of this $261,000 has been subscribed.
Illinois Wesleyan University	1,750,000
Of this $692,000 has been subscribed.
Sustentation Expenses and Miscellany	250,000
Total	$5,500,000

The quota includes 261,000 already pledged to Illinois Woman's college and $692,000 already pledged to Illinois Wesleyan.

The report of the committee was made early in the morning session and then followed a series of speeches in supporting the program outlined. For more than two hours this line of argument continued and then some opposition was voiced. The hour of adjournemnt was advanced to 1 o'clock and when the second session began still other speeches were heard in opposition. For a time the debate was so sharp that it seemed entirely possible that the proposed program had been defeated.

It should be understood that this difference of opinion related only to the proposal to raise the fund mentioned. The other suggestions in the extended report were adopted by unanimous support.

The opposition to the campaign program was occasioned mainly by the opinion of some of the ministers that this is a very unfavorable time to begin a campaign for funds.

To Conserve Historical Data

One proposal in the report is for the preparation and publication of a history of the first 100 years of Methodism in the Illinois conference. A committee was authorized to plan for a historical pageant to be given during the conference sessions in 1924.

It is proposed to reorganize the historical society work of the conference with the end in view of securing a more careful compilation of historical data.

The report laid special stress upon the need for trained leadership and the value of life service work was recommended especially. Emphasis was laid upon this need by Rev. W. J. Davidson, who is secretary of the life service commission. He said that there is desperate need for recruits and went on to show that out of the 16,000 Methodist charges in the United States that 4165 are without regular pastors. These pulpits are supplied by students or retired ministers. There are 383 pulpits entirely vacant. The report to which Mr. Davidson called attention recommends that a Sunday each year be set aside for life service emphasis.

Still another recommendation in the report was with reference to vacation Bible schools. In all cities where these schools have been in operation the results have been most bneficial. Th general committee also recommend that a period of four months preceding Easter be set aside as a special time for evangelism, and for the recruiting of members.

Missionary Work Thrives

The anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society was held Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:45 o'clock. Mrs. Thomas Nicholson had been scheduled for an address on "The World's Womanhood," but was unable to be present. Miss Lillie Green, a returned missionary from India, gave a most informing address upon the work in that land. Miss Green is now in the United States on a two years' leave of absence from the foreign field. The facts, presented in a forceful way by Miss Green, gave her audience a new understanding of the call there is for workers and funds in India.

The report of the treasurer was made showing the funds raised in the conference the past year for foreign work to be $83,292.18, this being an increase of more than $7,000 over the contributions of the last year. The funds raised as by districts were as follows:

Bloomington, $9,901.43.
Champaign-Danville, $15,574.-94.
Decatur, $12,421.41.
Jacksonville, 10,337.58.
Mattoon, $13,102.31.
Quincy, $8,668.32.
Springfield, $13,286.11.

The figures for membership were also encouraging, showing a total of 21,930, which represents an increase during the year of 2,046. There are 239 women's auxiliary societies with a membership of 11,165. The 137 young people's societies have a membership of 3,441 while the 24 junior societies members run to the total of 7,324.

W. F. M. S. Banquet.

The banquet of the Woman's Foreign Missinary society was held at Grace church at 5:30 o'clock and was a very pleasant event with a large atentdance. After the serving of an excellent dinner, Mrs. E. L. Pletcher presided at toastmistress Miss Winifred Willard, director of publicity for the educational program of the church, was one of the speakers, as was Miss Lillie Green, a missionary to India. Mrs. R. A. Gates also spoke as president of the district missionary society. A solo by Miss Jane Patterson of Le Roy, Ill., added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

Home Mission Anniversary.

Saturday night at Centenary church the anniversary of the Home Mission and Church Extension society was observed with Rev. Christie Galeener presiding. An address was made by Dr. W. M. Gilbert. He was followed by Dr Charles Hutchison, who presented the work of the beaconess board, illustrating his remarks with steropticon pictures. Then followed a brief address by Dr. W. C. Hanson, who represents the board of Sunday schools of the church.

Candidates Received.

One of the first numbers on the morning program of the M. E. conference was the reception into membership of four young men, Messrs. Fred A. Buckley, H. H. Dibbs, G. W. Holmes and B. L. Rudd. Bishop Nicholson made suitable remarks stating the importance of the step the young men were taking; the great work they were undertaking and the all importance of thorough preparation and consecration.

He then propounded to them the statutory questions prescribed by the discipline. He said one question sometimes troubles some candidates which pertained to striving for perfect love and grace. He was careful to emphasize the fact that human perfection, freedom from temptation to sin; absence of any desire to do wrong was not intended, but that love to God should be without stint and the desire to attain the model set by our Savior should be the guide always.

He told how he loved his mother above all women; how his love for her knew no bounds, and then when he married, his wife came first in all things, but still his love for his mother remained. So we should love God with all our heart.

When it came to the question regarding personal habits, he said there were two things to be avoided; we should not be so absorbed in any work that we neglect to eat regularly and take care of our health. Often the temptation to err in this respect is great. And then, it is important that we do not go to the other extreme and eat too much, as is far too often the case in our land.

A touching incident followed—the presentation to the conference of Rev. Jacob J. Gardner of the northern Iowa conference. The gentleman spoke briefly, telling how he had been reared a Calvinistic Baptist, but had gone in 1862, when a student here, to a class meeting in the basement of East Charge church on condition that he was not to be called on to speak. The friend failed to tell the leader, who did call on the young man, who spoke in a halting manner, but was deeply impressed. The whole way of conducting the meetings of the church and class were contrary to the manner in which he had been educated, but he saw something in it. Finally, he went with other seekers to the mourners' bench and was gloriously converted. He entered the ministry and for more than fifty years had not missed a conference roll call. He transferred from this conference on account of his health and ten years ago he was superanuated on account of the health of his wife who had broken down after years of faithful labor with him in his work.

The lady herself was then presented to the conference and the whole incident was deeply impressive.

The Lay Delegates.

Bishop Nicholson then welcomed the members of the lay conference and made a stirring address on the great work before the church. H eread from Numbers where spies were sent to look over the land. Talk about a survey being a new thing; here is one which was made centuries ago and one of extreme importance. The spies went as directed, they saw indeed that the land was rich, flowing in milk and honey; they brought the grapes from Eschol and verified all that had been promised; but, oh, the faithless ones weakened when they saw the giants there; the sons of Anak were there and though Caleb and Joshua tried to encourage the people and assure them that God was able to drive out the inhabitants as He had promised, they would not be comforted, but cried out that they wished they had never been brought out of the land of Egypt, and for punishment they were compelled to wander in the wilderness till all adults but Moses, Caleb and Joshua were dead.

Then when they reached the promised land and the possessions were parceled out, Caleb, grand old man of 85 years, didn't try to get a soft job but asked for mountain possessions.

Oh, brethren, the time has come when the people of God must get together for this program of ten years; we must work for it, pray for it and expect it, and it will be accomplished.

Tribute to Dr. Jacques.

Dr. Newland paid a deserved tribute to Mr. Jacques, first president of the Woman's College and told of the grand work accomplished by the great and good men who blazed the way for others to follow. He brought the greetings of the Central Illinois conference and felt sure there was no grander body of men anywhere than the members of that body and the people of that part of the state would do their part in the work.

There is a great dearth of ministers. Fully 25 per cent of the churches are being supplied or have no minister at all. We need 200 men this conference year and from 200 to 500 women for nurses, missionaries and the like.

Rev. W. J. Davidson made an impassioned plea for greater zeal in the work. Churches are vacant or are being supplied with young men or licentiates. Last year this conference had a net loss of twenty ministers. We must arouse the young Christians to a sense of duty.

Dr. Hancher, the great debt raiser, was presented to the conference. He said five and a half million must be raised. It would be a disgrace to the cause if we fail. It would require but $7.63 per member each year to accomplish the desired result.

We must all work together and we may accomplish the great undertaking. The children should be taught to give and all should make a united effort and it may be accomplished.

SHOOTING AFFRAY VICTIM BURIED

Remains of Charles Cooper Who Was Killed in North Dakota Buried at Arcadia—Cause of Shooting Not Known to Relatives.

The remains of Charles Cooper, who was killed September 3 in a shooting affray at Harvey, N. D., were buried yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Arcadia cemetery. Cooper was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Cooper of the Winchester vicinity and had relatives in Scott county and in the Arcadia neighborhood.

Very little information has been received by relatives of how the shooting occurred. It is understood, however, that Cooper was working in a restaurant in Harvey at the time the fatal shooting took place. It is reported that he was shot three times. The nature of the quarrel that resulted in the shooting is not known. Mr. Cooper was 26 years of age and leaves a wife and one child.

The remains were to have been received in Concord, but by mistake were sent to Winchester. Relatives were notified and the remains were taken Saturday to the residence of Joseph Renard, a relative, near Arcadia. Among surviving relatives of the decedent are Frank Hardin, of Arcadia, an uncle, Mrs. James Roach, an aunt, of Arcadia, and D. M. Cooper, who resides southwest of the city.

MR. RIGGS HAS GOOD RECORD AS COUNTY CLERK

While the primary for the county election next year is some months in advance, there is talk from time to time of various candidacies. It is generally understood that George L. Riggs, who is now serving as county clerk, will seek re-election.

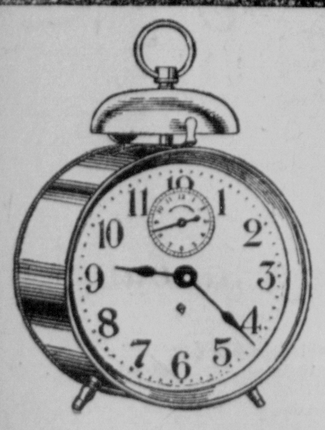

Mr. Riggs has held the office for the past three years with general satisfaction to the public. Those who have had business with the county clerk's office have always been accorded courteous treatment by Mr. Riggs and his deputies, and every endeavor has been made to conduct the business of the office as a public trust. Mr. Riggs has proved himself a courteous and efficient official.

With Morgan County Poets

Twilight is a favorite subject with the poets, and not many of them have been able to resist it.

The first poem is by one of our former citizens who is now a resident of Springfield, Mass. The verses were first published in "The Strathmorean," a little magazine gotten out by the Strathmore Mills, by whom the writer is employed as a traveling salesman.

The second poem is from a private collection of verses not yet published.

TWILIGHT

Twilight is an eerie mirror;
In its shadows moods intrude.
Dusk, half wistful, filled with myst'ry
Holds reflections dim, subdued.

For the happy heart, an omen
In the twinkling lights above,
Promising a million home fires
Warm with laughter, comfort, love.

For the lone one, deeper shadows
Piled like cloud waves, height on height.
Dusk is lonely—ah, most lonely—
Of the hours of day or night.

—M. H. GRASSLY.

THE MESSAGE OF THE TWILIGHT

There comes to me in the twilight hour,
As I sit by the open door,
A murmur borne on the evening breeze,
A voice that whispers among the trees
Fraught with a strange, mysterious power,
As from a far distant shore.

As gently the zephyrs fan my brow,
I listen with eager ears,
And I seem to hear a celestial song
Sweetly sung by a heavenly throng,
While the beautiful city seems near to me,
And I smile through unbidden tears.

I am soon oblivious to earthly scenes,
And I open the eyes of my soul;
I see as I never saw before
The river of life and the golden shore,
More beautiful far than my dearest dreams,
While the crystal waters roll.

Adown the side of the flowing stream
My path winds its devious way;
Rugged; anon through briar and thorn;
Sometimes, perchance, my hands are torn;
But ever about it brightly gleams
The light of a blessed day.

—S. W. NICHOLS.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

The Agricultural Crisis—Honorable Sydney Anderson of Minnesota, chairman of the Joint Commission of Agricultural Inquiry, has prepared the following statement anticipating the results of the Committee's work. It is an unbiased statement made after months of hard work and intensive study. In coincides very closely with the points brought out in the testimony of the American Farm Bureau Federation before the Commission. The causes which brought about the recent agricultural crisis, the principal phenomena of which as the almost perpendicular drop of farm prices, can be reduced to four factors. These factors, in the order in which I believe they affected the situation, are as follows:

First—The folling off of exports, particualrly in beef and beef products pork and pork products and cotton.

Second—The very marked decline in domestic consumption in which the so-called buyers' strike was a factor as was also the general industrial depression.

Third—The increase in freight rates.

Fourth—The pressure of limitations of credit and discount rates. He continues, the general situation of the farmers can be best expressed in terms of this year as compared with 1913, the purchasing power of the farmers' dollar stood at 69 per cent and was slightly higher than this for the entire year of 1920. This means that the farmer is approximately 30 per cent worse off than he was in 1913. The relief of the present situation, Mr. Anderson believes, lies in the improvement of the export situation, the return of the industrial situation to normal and the extension of liberal credit to agriculture. In his report there is one ray of sunshine, where Mr. Anderson delcares his belief that the farmers' situation has reached a turning and is improving.

CAR IN SMASHUP

A car owned and driven by Fred Six of South Main street was badly smashed up Friday evening when it was struck by antother car at the corner of Clay avenue and East State street. Mr. Six was turning his car around on State street when a car going west at a high rate of speed, struck his car squarely in the middle and jamming it up against the curbing. The running board of Mr. Six's car was broken, the front tire punctured and the door jammed in. The occupants of the two cars luckily escaped injury but the car will be in the garage for several weeks.

BOOTLEGGER LEADS POLICE WILD CHASE

Chase Leads Thru City Streets and Out Into Country—Culprit Ditches Two Jugs of Moonshine.

Chief Kiloran and Officer Baker engaged in a wild chase of a bootlegger thru the city streets Saturday morning. The officers continued the chase several miles into the country, when the bootlegger, who was driving a Hudson speedster, outfooted the police Lizzie and made his escape.

The officers first received word that their man was in Broadway alley. When they arrived there however, he was gone. The officers skirmished around, finally getting into North Main street. They saw a car which answered the description. Just as they saw the car, the driver saw them and stepped on the juice and started off at full speed with the police in pursuit.

He turned west in West North street and went by the police station forty miles an hour. The police gained on him as he slowed for the turn north into Church street. The chase continued out Church street and across to North Diamond street.

Here the bootlegger headed for the country. The police were holding their own and the bootlegger tossed out a large carton on one side of the road and a sack on the other. As the officers sped past they saw the carton was empty and that the jug in the sack was broken, so kept on after the fleeing car.

Soon they came to a piece of road which had been recently graded. The Hdson was able to negotiate the rough ground better than the Ford and soon disappeared.

The officers turned around and started back to the city. On the way they found the sack contained two jugs and one had not been broken. It was full of moonshine or what is better known locally as white mule. This jug was brought to the police station.

The number of the car was secured and an effort will be made to have the driver arrested. Chief Kiloran said that a number of white mule runners were peddling their wares here and it is hoped to be able to break up the practice. He feels assured that the man they were chasing will not come back for a while at least.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. ESTHER ORNELLAS FUNK

We have lost our darling Esther,
She has bid us sad adieu;
She has gone to live in heaven,
And her form is lost to view.

Oh, that dear one, how we loved her!
Oh, how hard to give her up!
But an angel came down for her
And removed her from our flock.
Thru all pains at times, she'd smile,
A smile of heavenly birth;
And when the angels called her home.
She smiled farewell to earth.

Heaven retaineth now our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
And the sunbeams come to linger
Where our sainted Esther sleeps.

—By MISS B. ORNELLAS.

A FRIENDLY VISITOR.

Mr. James Towens has returned to his home in Chicago, after about a week spent here, in seeing to the installation of some of the fine furniture of the new high school building. Mr. Towens is not a stranger here, for he has been coming since the year, 1900, when he installed the pulpit and furniture of the new Westminster church. Since then he has done other work in his line, among other jobs being the fine furniture refitting the Elliott State bank.

Mr. Towens unites the quality of a pleasant gentleman with that of one experienced in business. He may not have been in Europe, but he has been in every state but one of the American Union, which is more than many parties who "have been abroad" can say.

THE MANTLE OF CARUSO

Speculation is already rife in the newspaper and musical circles of this country as to whose shoulders the "Mantle" of the famous Enrico Caruso shall rest upon. The New York Evening Globe of Aug. 2 mentions three: "Lucient Muratore, the French tenor. Benjamin Gigli, the Italian, with Mario Chamlee of the Metropolitan as perhaps the most likely one."

When Chamlee made his debut at the Metropolitan opera house on Nov. 21 last, several of the New York critics commented on the similarity in the quality of the two voices. Mr. Max Smith in the New York American said: "His voice is a tenor of essential lyric caliber, yet peculiarly warm and mellow in the middle register, reminding one in a small way of Caruso." Mr. Pitts Sanborn in the Evening Globe writes at greater length on the subject and says: "Every once in a while we hear that 'a young Caruso' has reached town. He sings. Sometimes he never sings again—here. Sometimes he remains as a more or less useful member of an opera company. Always there has been room for the next one of the brand. Perhaps the real 'young Caruso' is Mario Chamlee, who made his local debut in the season's first Metropolitan "Tosca" last evening. Mr. Chamlee revealed a voice which in its purity of timber, combined with a well recognized warmth and richness actually suggested the super tenor of the great Enrico. Today the most cordial good wishes of all lovers of opera must go both to Mr. Gatti-Casazza and his 'young Caruso.'"

Mario Chamlee was born in Los Angeles, Cal., of an Italian father and American mother. His education was entrusted to Achille Alberto of that city. His debut was made in Los Angeles with a local traveling opera company, with which he continued for the balance of the season. Enthused with the singing profession, and desiring to get ahead in his chosen field, but lacking funds, Chamlee sang for many weeks in vaudeville in cities from the Mississippi river west to the Pacific coast. This enabled him to come east for continued study, but when these savings were exhausted, he again accepted an engagement of fourteen weeks in New York's most popular picture play house, The Rialto. Then came the opportunity for a tour with another opera company, followed by a trans-continental tour with Antonio Scotti's Opera company, and finally on the stage of the Metropolitan opera house, where he has achieved his most notable successes in the roles of Cavaradossi in "Tosca" the Duke in "Rigoletto," parts which first established the late Enrico Caruso in the hearts of the New York public.

Mario Chamlee is now thirty-three years of age. In comparing the early careers of thetwo singers they seem to have undergone the same experiences, even in the military training for while Caruso joined the Italian army, Chamlee was in the great American army during the recent world conflict and served with it in the French campaigns. Both live in millions of homes on phonographic records. Is America coming into its own in producing the greatest musical talent?

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Howeard were city arrivals from Girard yesterday.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

Why They Choose the Paige

Since the first of the year more than 25 per cent of our sales have replaced cars of much higher price.

Buying habits have changed. Men who can afford five and six thousand dollar cars have developed a canny shrewdness. They have learned that peak price no longer guarantees peak performance or maximum value.

This conviction is brought home to them when they compare the Paige with the cars that carry the biggest price tags. Power, endurance, comfort, beauty and economy—in any and every test the Paige 6-66 is triumphant. That is why discriminating buyers are choosing the Master of the Highway as the greatest value on the market today.

WHITE HALL PASTOR BACK FROM VACATION

Rev. Lee A. Hanchett Is Again at Home After a Visit in East—G. A. R. Meeting Postponed—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, Sept. 10.—Rev. Lee A. Hanchett has returned from a vacation of a month at Titusville, Pa. and other points in the east, and will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit next Sunday. Church activities are beginning to take on new life with the close of the summer vacation season. Rally day is to be observed by the Christian Sunday school, a mark being set for an attendance of 200. Special invitations have been mailed for the session of the B. Y. P. U in the First Baptist church, Sunday evening. There will be no services in the M. E. church on account of the Illinois conference being session at Jacksonville. None of the churches or auxiliaries are putting forth any special effort at publicity at the present time, except in a desultory manner.

There being only three members resent, there was no meeting of Culver G. A. R. post Wednesday afternoon. Commander A. A. Lorton says there was no apparent reason for at least a quorum not being present, but aside from himself the only ones present were Adjutant G. R. Adams and Comrade S. J. Rigg. There are plenty of good, active members to carry on the meetings and all activities of the post in a manner that would bring wide comment, as it is undisputed that the local post has a larger active membership than any other G. A. R. post in the state located in a corresponding population.

Mrs. John Pratt underwent an operation in St. John's hospital, St. Louis, the first of the week, from which she is making satisfactory recovery.

T. P. Bates came up from St. Louis Thursday to look after affairs of the Bates vineyard. Press comment on the abandonment of the grape industry after three-quarters of a century by the Bates family, elicited no comment from the present owner, but he intimated that he would soon make a statement that might meet the demands of sentiment in the matter. Mr. Bates said that he had never become so engrossed in worldly affairs as to lose the sentimental value of Bates history as it relates to White Hall.

J. E. Symonds, a C. & A. train dispatcher at Roodhouse, has been laid up with rheumatism for severdal days.

W. S. Corsa, proprietor of Gregory Farm, stated today that the winter sale of Percheron horses will be held on November 25, the day following Thanksgiving. Mr. Corsa has been advised that Col L. L. Seely, the White Hall auctioneer, will conduct a like sale for George T. Fraser, at Tate, Sask., Canada, on October 20th.

B. J. chapter, P. O. E., held the initial meeting of the season, following the summer vacation, at the home of Mrs. Emil Schaam, near Hillview, Thursday evening, the ladies going to this hospital country home in autos, and were served with an elegant 6 o'clock dinner. The party consisted of Mesdames Guy Lowenstein, W. L. Winn, Mark Lowenstein, J. F. Short, G. A. Greene, G. R. Waddell and Miss Lauara Baker. This is an exclusive organization of women of White Hall and vicinity.

It is rumored that Rev. O. A. Carmean is to tender his resignation as pastor of the First Baptist church next Sunday, which will leave both Baptist churches pastorless. Rev. Carmean is to go to Jonesboro, Illinois, if all calculations prove out, and he will leave behind a lot of mighty good friends who admire his sterling Christian qualities and his defense of the sacredness of the Sabbath.

Lieut. Fred C. Smith, who has served 23 years in the army and is now back on a furlough, is putting in the time at the erection of a four-room dwelling on his lots on North Main street, immediately south of the property of his brother, Gottlieb T. Smith.

Much interest attaches Henry Ford's threatened invasion of the Mississippi valley by the acquisition of another railroad that needs the health-giving qualities that seems to be the new specialty of this "enemy" of Wall Street. This road is said to be the C., P. & St. L. (Bluff line), a line of 257 miles from Peoria to St. Louis, with branches from Havana to Jacksonville and Alton to Grafton. Ford should be made acquainted with the railroad opportunity of a line from Quincy to St. Louis that will open up the vast reclaimed areas of the Illinois valley, and then he will have time perhaps for what we would think is the less important job of resurrecting the Missouri & North Arkansas road that suspended operations on August 1 for want of adequate nourishment. This line comprises 368 miles from Joplin Mo., to Helena, Ark., on the Mississippi river, opposite Memphis. Ford's entry into the railroad field is heralded with great delight because of his success with the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton, a road that extends from Detroit Mich., to Ironton, Ohio, on the Ohio river, a total of 451.4 miles, including branches from Jackson to Cornelia, Ohio; Sedalia to Kingman, Ohio, and from Toledo, to Dundee, Mich. The key to Ford's success is that he has a proper conception of the new social order as to the needs of the workingman. By paying his railroad workers a high standard of wages he relies on them to aid in the administrative affairs of the road to such an extent as to reduce to a minimum the number of high-salaried officials.

The Baptist guild held an all-day meeting today with Mrs. W. F. Short at her home on Centennial street.

HUGH GREEN IS APPOINTED HEAD OF I. C. DEBATING

Local Attorney Named Lecturer in Argumentation, Giving 3 Hour Course For One Semester—Other Illinois News.

By action of the faculty committee of the Board of Trustees of the college, Hugh Green, was recently appointed lecturer in Argumentation at the college. Mr. Green will give a three hours course in debating for one semester.

The students of Illinois college have always taken a keen interest in debate and the establishment of this course will further enlarge and improve this work at the college. Mr. Green was known as one of the best debaters at Illinois college during his own student days, having represented both his society and the college in a number of debates. While he was a student in the Law School of Northwestern University, Mr. Green twice won a prize of $100 offered to the best individual debater in the whole University. The course in debating will be offered as part of the work in the department of English.

Many students have already reserved time with the instructors at the Conservatory of Music. Director Kritch is in town and appointments can be made with him at the office of the Conservatory at Academy Hall.

Mrs. Rammelkamp and family returned from Old Mission, Michigan, Thursday night.

WHAT A TONIC DOES FOR YOU
AND WHY YOU NEED IT, IN SO MANY INSTANCES WHEN YOU ARE RUN DOWN, NERVOUS OR HAVE HAD TO ENDURE GREAT STRAIN OR WORRY OF ANY KIND.
A tonic is something which puts tone, energy, strength and endurance into you. It gives a push to your heart, making it pump the blood over your body more vigorously; it makes your lungs expand more fully and thereby take up more strength-giving oxygen from the air you breathe; it makes your kidneys carry off the poisons which would otherwise accumulate in the body; it makes your digestive apparatus perform its work better and give your blood the material it needs for feeding and sustaining your body; it makes your brain act more vigorously and for long periods without fatigue, thus bringing you greater success in whatever business profession or undertaking you are engaged.
When you are rundown, nervous, half sick, down-hearted and about ready to give up, experience of many years has shown that one of the best remedies to pull you out of this predicament is good old organic iron. But be sure the iron you take is organic iron, the kind that is found in plants, and not metallic iron which people usually take. Organic iron may be had from your druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron. It often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, tired out folks in two weeks time. Beware of substitutes. Always look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggist.—Adv.

Daily Market Report

HIGHEST QUOTATIONS OF WEEK REGISTERED

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Highest quotations of the week were registered in the course of today's abbreviated but very active stock market session. Virtually all leaders added substantially to recent gains, showing recoveries of 10 to more than 30 points from last month's level of depression.

Shorts timidly resisted the movement at the outset but retired in disorder when the buying movement assumed wide proportions.

Oils, equipments, steels and motors were the most conspicuous stocks rail holding back. Another slump in German exchange which forced the mark under one cent and the August report of the United States Steel Corporation disclosing another decrease of nearly 300,000 tons in unfilled orders were among the day's incidents.

Last week's deficit in actual clearing house reserves was cancelled by an increase of cash approximating $17,000,000. Actual loans and discounts were reduced by about $8,400,000.

The bond market was active and strong in the more important issues. Liberties, however, showing only trifling changes.

Total sales (par value) $5,675,000.

PRICE OF WHEAT TURNED DOWNWARD

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Wheat prices turned downward today after a six day advance. Heavy profit-taking together with slowness of export call had much to do with the reaction. Closing quotations were weak, 2¾ to 3⅜c lower, with December $1.32½ to $1.32¾ and May $1.37¾ to $1.38. Corn lost ⅞ to 1⅛c and oats ⅜c to ¼@½c. In provisions, the outcome varied from 10c decline to a like advance.

At first, the wheat market displayed considerable fresh strength, so much that May delivery reached the highest point yet this season. The chief bullish factor appeared to be a new upturn in the value of cotton and stocks. Buying of wheat, however, was less aggressive than of late and this circumstance gave impetuous to holders' efforts to realize profits. Canadian railroad embargoes against grain shipments from Georgian Bay ports to Montreal tended to disconcert bulls.

Then attention shifted to an apparent complete pause in export business and at the last but little rallying power was in evidence and bears were taking the opportunity to emphasize anew various unfavorable aspects of the financial situation in Europe.

Corn even more than wheat was bearishly affected by the Canadian railroad embargoes.

Besides country offerings of corn were on a large scale. Oats merely reflected the action of other cereals.

Provisions moved upward as a result for demand for lard, but packers selling acted later as something of a counter-balance.

Veteran of Civil War Still Hale and Hearty

GEORGE D. SHAW, Springfield, Mass.

"To say that I feel wenty-five years younger, twenty-five years healthier and twenty-five years stronger expresses what Tanlac has done for me better than any other way I can put it," said George D. Shaw, veteran of the Civil War, who now lives at 321 Walnut street, Springfield, Mass. "I am now seventy-eight years old and I don't hesitate to say I have never known a medicine to equal Tanlac. For fifteen years I was subject to attacks of indigestion that were so bad at times I would have to lay up for a week or two. For a long time I lived on crackers and milk alone as nothing else agreed with me.

"When I started on Tanlac I weighed only one hundred and seventeen pounds and my days were thought to be numbered. I've been so wonderfully built up I now weigh one hundred and forty-three pounds and my stomach is as sound as a dollar. In fact, I believe I could eat the old army rations again without it hurting me in the least.

"I never miss a chance of saying a good word for Tanlac and I would like to urge the boys of the "Sixties" who are not feeling right to give it a trial for I am sure it would put them in line again just as it has me. For a man of my age to have no physical ailment, to be well and strong and enjoy life as he did twenty-five years ago, is certainly something to be thankful for and there is nothing too good I can say for Tanlac."

OBITUARY.

Roscoe Terry Hawkins, son of Levi and Dora Hawkins, was born May 27, 1896, and departed this life November 11, 1918, at the age of 22 years, 5 months and 15 days. A sister and three infant brothers preceded him to the better land. Those left to mourn his departure are father, mother, Eva, wife of Alfred Martin, of White Hall; Carey, of Manchester; Lester, of Murrayville vicinity; Iona, wife of William Horton, of near Manchester; Stanley and Leo, at home. Besides there is an aged grandfather and a number of uncles and aunts, cousins and friends, all of whom greatly feel his loss, for Roscoe was a boy who made friends wherever he went. To know him was to love him, and admire his noble Christian character. Early in life Roecoe was converted in a meeting at East Union, held by Rev. Carey Fitzgerald, and became a member of that church, always willing to do anything assigned to him to help in the Master's cause. He was present at most all services, Sunday school, preaching services and prayer meetings. He was one of those faithful few on whom you could always depend. He never forgot to write in his letters home and ask how the Sunday school and prayer meetings were getting along, and that he would love to be there. During the World War, Roscoe felt the call of his country, and tried to enlist in the navy, but was rejected on account of slight physical disability. Later on, when the boys were being drafted, Roscoe was called and accepted, leaving home with a number of Murrayville boys on June 28, 1918.

It seemed Roscoe had a sort of premonition that his farewell then to his loved ones would be his last for he said to his grief-stricken mother, "Don't worry, mama, I'm taking One with me Who has promised to be with me all the way." Then at the station, as the train pulled out, he pointed upward and said to his sister and sweetheart, "If I never see you here again, girls, I'll see you over there." That was his last goodbye to loved ones, for in less than a month he was overseas, and two months later found him at the front, fighting, evidently without any training, having been on the move almost all the time during those three months. He was first in Company I, 154th infantry, but was later transferred to Company L, 127th infantry. We know Roscoe did his duty on the battle field, for in all his brief life he was never known to shirk. He had been in the fighting line some six or seven weeks when that fatal day came so near the close of the war, the morning of November 10, in the Argonne Forest. He was wounded by an air bomb in the right arm and taken to a hospital, where on the following day, the day the armistice was signed, he passed away.

Letters from Red Cross authorities stated that he said he wanted to get well; that it seemed hard to go now that it was all over, and still later in the day he asked the time of day and said he would not be here long. We feel like Roscoe died trusting in the Savior, whom he loved and that his dying thoughts even in that faraway land were of God, mother, and loved ones. We cannot understand why one so full of promise, just stepping into noble manhood, without a single bad habit, should be taken from his loved ones to whom he was all in all. He was mother's darling boy, father's obedient son; he was brothers' and sisters' comrade. We cannot under stand, and yet we know that God doeth all things well. We feel that the memory of the few short years Roscoe lived will live in our memory always, and his worthy example will be an inspiration to us, while his noble act, the noblest that man can do, that of laying down his life for others, shall stand out as a monument for him throughout all time.
